Dr. Clark Applies Economic Science to Policy of Protection in Great Address to Liberal Club.

With Mr. M. Clark, of Olds, the Liberal candidate in the new Federal constituency of Red Deer, concluded the first day of the campaign. Protection as advocated by the Conservative party in Canada in an address to the people of Alberta last night, there remained no additional fact to be summoned to demonstrate the necessity of such protection is economically unsound. Under the policy of free trade alone, the people of Alberta will, at the end where the greatest good is for the greatest number. Free trade is the only policy that will benefit the people of Alberta. A moderate tariff such as embodied in the fiscal policy of the Laurier government would be a step in the right direction, but it would pose only a delay in the evolution of free trade, the star to which the faces of the people of Alberta and the Liberal party are turned.

The Liberals of Edmonton, who heard Dr. Clark's masterly exposition of the subject, "Protection vs. Free Trade," listened to what was unanimously conceded to be one of the greatest addresses ever delivered in the province of Alberta.

Dr. Clark is not an entire stranger to Edmonton, his previous visit to the city was on the occasion of the memorable banquet tendered by the citizens of Edmonton to Hon. Frank Oliver, following the latter's acceptance of the portfolio of Minister of the Interior in the Laurier Government.

The Liberals of Edmonton, who longed for the return of the subject, "Protection vs. Free Trade," and the speaker, who most cordially conceded to the vote of the prodded addresser, were delivered by the speaker.

Dr. Clark is not an entire stranger to the city, as on the occasion of the meeting he was the guest of the citizens of Edmonton to Hon. Frank Oliver, who was then minister of the portfolio of Minister of the Interior in the Laurier Government.

Clark has been in politics, not in Canada, but in Great Britain, where he was a general election in Great Britain, and was elected to the House of Commons, for a candidate of the present premier, Mr. Balfour.

There is perhaps no man in Alberta with a wider knowledge of political conditions in Great Britain, and of practical applications. He is an accomplished speaker, a keen analyst, and Henry George is an authority.

His versatility as a public speaker was shown in his address last night was not only a case and convincing, with occasional touches of humor, but it was a case showed his case as a finished article.

The opinion was freely and enthusiastically expressed at the close of the meeting that Dr. Clark's election as member for Red Deer, assured another member in the Dominion Parliament who will keep Alberta before the attention of the whole country and the Empire.

Future Member For Red Deer—The address under 9 o'clock, due to the fact that the train on the C.P.R. from Calgary to Edmonton was late, was given by Puffer, M.P.P. for Lacombe, and then by the speaker of the House, who stepped into the breach. Their speeches were brief and interesting. Dr. Clark's speech was the last of the evening. His reform was the signal for applause, and the president of the Edmonton District Liberal association, as the future speaker of the House, made the closing allusion to the future of Red Deer.

At the close of the history remarks, Dr. Clark thanked the Young Liberal club for what he deemed a privilege of having been invited to address them. He then addressed the club. He was somewhat surprised to find that there were no Liberals in the province. He referred briefly and amiably to the truly interesting and important subject of the day, and then was interrupted by his opponent in Red Deer, who made a few remarks on the influence of any zeal which was blowing in any particular district. He

"I have chosen the subject of tariffs on which to address the young Liberals of Edmonton," said Dr. Clark, "because it is a question of general interest. The subject may be berly now some special seeds in the midst of the Young Liberals of a future generation.

Nobody is more commonly flung at our heads than that there is really no difference between the tariff policy of the two parties. I am sure that this attitude to be taken by the Conservatives is a very serious mistake. It is an error on their part that the basis of their policy is right. You will recall that I have said that the tariff is regarded in favor of a tariff as high as that of the United States, and that another country is to be given the same tariff as high as "Human's" galloves. It is a bold Conservative who will say that the tariff is not a question between the tariff policies of the two parties.

"Well it is pretty hard to believe that," rejoined Mr. Leheny, "when the government is so much against the Columbia government during the few days."

Summing his remarks the speaker said the Alberta government were not going to do anything but were going to effect their political life. The labor men were not prompted by any other motives than to get the government for a suitable act. "If it were the intention of the government to support the labor men, they would have done less of the political consequences," he said. "The labor men are not a menace. Until they do that we must stand aside according to their measure of ability. The labor men first know what they wanted and then going to the government to get their rights they offended."

Mr. Leheny addressed the labor men and said that he would not otherwise spend on the shows in front of the labor men. "If you are going, they would see a great show. We went down to hear the debate between the labor men and the speaker," I found the member for district seven in his chair. Needing to go to the next speaker, I went to the chair after the next election. The speaker emphasized the ability of the labor men first knowing what they wanted and then going to it regardless of what political parties they offended.

Mr. Leheny advised the labor men to go to the legislature and otherwise spend on the shows in it and go down to the legislature, where they would see a great show. When they went down to hear the debate on the labor bill, he said the speaker, "I found the member for district asleep in his chair. Need to say there will be a new speaker in the legislature," he said.

The speaker stated that when the labor delegation urged their claims on the government they were partly told that they were wrong. He believed the workmen would triumph in the end and would get a pension act, but for the amount of work they had done so far he thought they had no right to expect it. Everyone was leaving the initiative for some time.

Calgary Man Speaks.

Geo. Howel, secretary of the Trades and Labor council, of Calgary, was the next speaker, stated that he was here to watch legislation in the interests of the labor men of Calgary. Referring to the compensation act, he stated that he believed the working men should get compensation for injury regardless of his work. This was provided for in the act. He touched briefly on the 40 first clause and expressed the opinion that the working men should receive compensation for the injury regardless of the height of the building. This was provided for in the act. He touched briefly on the 40 cent clause and expressed the opinion that working men should receive compensation regardless of the height of the building. He touched briefly on the 50 per cent. compensation clause, criticizing the proposal of the government. The speaker brought one point out when he advocated having the payment made within 30 days of the date of the accident and two weeks from the date of the accident, as provided for in the proposal.

With regard to the accidents to motorists Mr. Howell entered a protest against the $5 compensation limit. He said the compensation should and he considered this an injustice. The onus of proof of the blame for an accident should be placed on the employer and not on the workman.

Dealing with new clauses which he believed should be added to the act, the speaker favored the compulsory insurance of workmen by employers, the registration of contracts of employers with workmen and compensation for employees contracting diseases in factories.

At the conclusion of Mr. Howell's address Dr. J. F. Rymer pointed out to the speakers that when the act was discussed in the House and objections taken to the 40-foot clause, Attorney General Cross stated that there was only the second reading of the bill and that changes might be made at that time. It was again discussed in committee.

FRIEND OF THE LONDON POOR.
London, Feb. 10.—Father Bernard Vaughan, brother of the late Cardinal Vaughan, preaching in the Jesuit church here yesterday during the course of a powerful plea in behalf of the fall which will come before the house of commons this week against "workshops," gave a graphic illustration in which the poor workers in the East end of London are compelled to live.

In a small room, he said, that ought to be occupied by no more than two persons, there were twelve machines working all day and late into the evening. Then the machines were removed and straw mattresses laid on the floor, men being shuttled to sleep. At 2.30 in the morning these men were hurried into the street and the room relet to another set of sleepers who were also driven out at 6.30 a.m. on the return of the machine workers.

STRATHCONA WINS A GAME.

Strathcona won out in a league game with Edmonton by a score of 7 to 5. At last time the contest was a 2 to 1 in Strathcona's favor and in the second half the lead was increased by one more. Edmonton was weakened by the absence of Graham, who had been whose place was taken by Miller and McKenney. The Strathcona team was the same in the second half as in the first half, and the result was a 7 to 5 victory. The game was not characterized by brilliant play on either side, though players on both made a number of pretty individual dashes. The contest as a whole was rugged. McLeod and Graham did good work for Strathcona, while Miller and McKenney were prominent on the Edmonton line up. The features of the game were the appearance of a mix-up between Whiteford and Dunderrale in the first half, and the efforts of the latter to scale the walls and attack some of the spectators who were in the second half. The mix-up between Dunderrale and Whiteford was the result of a foul check by Whiteford on Dunderrale was going up the ice with the pack and Whiteford was cutting Dunderrale off, before he could reach his opponent he dropped the puck and checked Whiteford, sending him to the ice. In a moment they were up and the referee called it regular, the services of the Police Officer Harris and the rinkmen were getting the game on its feet. They were hurried but before the referee could change the play, Whiteford again rushed at Dunderrale and gave him a blow over the eye. Both players were taken to the hospital.

It was in the second period that McLeod did his stunt. McLeod was taking the puck down the ice and was about to shoot when he was hit on the face with McLeod's stick. This was a delay which was not being resuscitated. He suddenly revived, however, and to climb the six-foot sides of the rink to get to some of the spectators who were getting into an appreciated sympathy. The players were interviewed, and the game was restored.

The play was led by the referee and summary, Edmonton first scored two then Strathcona came back with two more, and the game was next went to Edmonton and then Strathcona tied again and the game ended in a tie one before the cross over.

Edmonton evened again immediately after the opening of the second half and went one up on Strathcona. Later, then Strathcona tied again and before the call of the referee the game was over. The referee was a margin of two goals.

Harley, of Edmonton, made a very satisfactory record. Laidlaw, of Strathcona, was judged to be the best defenseman, but the Edmonton players in almost every instance were related to leave the ice at his order.
